BRENT THOMPSON
President

SCOTT BRADFORD
Secretary Treasurer

Sisters, Brothers and Siblings,

As we celebrate International Workers' Day, also known as May Day, I want to take this opportunity to express my gratitude and appreciation for each and every one of you. There have been many rounds of bargaining so far this year and more to come.

Your hard work, dedication, and commitment to our union have not gone unnoted.

You have continued to show resilience, determination, and solidarity.

Your strength and solidarity are truly inspiring.

As we look ahead to the future, I want to reassure you that Unifor Local 636 is dedicated to protecting and advancing the rights of all our members. We will continue to fight for fair wages, safe working conditions, and job security. We will stand united in solidarity, always striving to create a better and more just workplace.

On this May Day, let us also remember the history of this important day, as we pay tribute to the struggles and achievements of workers around the world. Let us draw strength from the solidarity and collective power of the labour movement, and let us recommit ourselves to the fight for social and economic justice.

I am proud to serve as your President, and I am honoured to stand alongside each and every one of you in solidarity. Together, we are stronger. Together, we will continue to fight for a better future for all workers.

In solidarity,
